O Heavenly Father we acknowledge your supreme dominion over all creation. You are our Lord. Powerful and responsible through that we are, we still need your continued and sustaining assistance. Please accept our humble prayer and grant what we ask of you. In your love and kindness to mankind guide safely home the three courageous astronauts of Apollo 13, who braving the minute mysteries of outer space, ventured forth to explore for all of us what you have placed there for our benefit, for the enrichment of mankind. Grant to them, their families and all of us the strength that they as well as families and all of us the strength that they as well as us bear well the difficult challenges of our age and times.
