MEMORANDUM

To: Delegates of the First Constitutional Convention
From: Public Information Officer
Subject: Constitution Week

President Nixon has proclaimed the week of September 17 to 23 as Constitution Week to commemorate the signing of the U.S. Constitution on September 17, 1787.

Acting Governor Moylan has duplicated this proclamation for Guam with special reference to Guam's First Constitutional Convention.

Projects which have been planned for this week are as follows:

- a) Two page special in Guam Daily News
- b) Special television program for Friday, September 19, at 8:00 p.m. featuring University of Guam students speaking on Guam's political future as they foresee it
- c) Mail campaign to all organizations on Guam encouraging interest and speaking engagements
- d) All social studies teachers of public schools and the university informed and encouraged to prepare units on the Constitution and Guam's Convention
- e) Speaking engagements to cover all government and Guam history classes of J.F.K. High School, the National Honor Society of G.W. High School, and the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades of New Piti Elementary School
- f) Thirty second taped announcement by Tony Palomo repeated on KUAM radio throughout the week urging public interest and participation in the Convention
- g) Exhibits prepared by J.F.K. High School art students in various places on the island

MEMORANDUM

To: Social Studies Teachers
From: Public Information Officer, First Constitutional Convention
Subject: Observance of Constitution Week

The Social Studies Consultant, Mr. Darrel Duncan, has informed you through a memo of the dates of Constitution Week (September 17 to 23). The delegates of Guam's First Constitutional Convention welcome your participation in the Convention and will be glad to help you in any way they can.

Because our facilities are somewhat limited, however, we would like to ask that you do not schedule field trips of entire classes to our general sessions. Small groups of up to ten students can be accommodated and will be welcome.

On the other hand, if you would like to expose large groups of students to Convention activities, perhaps a speaking engagement can be arranged. Feel free to call me at 772-6359.

Sincerely yours,

Ruth Ann Gilliam

Dear Sir:

President Nixon has proclaimed the week of September 17 to 23 as Constitution Week, and the proclamation has been repeated by Governor Carlos Camacho with special reference to Guam's First Constitutional Convention.

It would be appropriate during this week for instructors of social studies to present a unit on the Constitution and to relate the present to the past by discussing Guam's Constitutional Convention.

The Convention delegates will be happy to aid you in any way, including serving as guest speakers for classes, the student government, or other interested groups.

Please feel free to call me at 772-6359 to enlist my help.

Sincerely yours,

Ruth Ann Gilliam

Dear Sir:

As public information officer of the First Constitutional Convention of the Territory of Guam, I am interested in designing a television program about the U.S. Constitution and Guam's present Convention. This program would be presented during Constitution Week which has been declared by President Nixon to be from September 17th to the 23rd.

I would like to include in this program a film produced by McGraw-Hill called The Constitution, Guardian of Liberty. This film would be shown on KUAM television, broadcasting from Ordot, Guam, on September 19, 1969.

I am writing to ask your permission to use this film. As the date of intended use is close at hand, please reply via air as soon as possible.

Sincerely yours,

Ruth Ann Gilliam

To all organizations

Dear PTA President:

President Richard Nixon has issued a proclamation making September 17 to the 23rd Constitution Week; and Governor Carlos G. Camacho will repeat the proclamation with emphasis on Guam's Constitutional Convention.

An appropriate way for your organization to observe this week is to engage a speaker or panel of speakers from the Convention to explain its activities. A particular committee from the Convention may be engaged if your group is interested in its subject area. A list of the standing committees and their members has been included with this letter. Also included are three news releases about the Convention. I'm sure that your organization would find some of the topics under consideration very exciting and interesting.

If you are interested in engaging a speaker or speakers, please call me at 772-6359, or write to me at the address given above.

Sincerely yours,

Ruth Ann Gilliam
