Dear

The committees of the First Constitutional Convention of the Territory of Guam have been studying data and are now beginning to discuss and compile alternatives for the new constitution. Some of the issues involved are very exciting and may appeal to the interests of your members.

Below are listed all of the committees of the Convention. If you find that one of these is studying an area about which your organization would like to know, please call me at 726-359 or 724-358 so that I may arrange a speaking engagement for you.
