Dear Mr. Iverson:

I am in receipt of your letter dated September 9, 1969, and appreciate your comments offered.

I thought you might also be interested in attending the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Bill of Rights Committee which will be held on Thursday, 9 October 1969, at 7:30 p.m., at Constitutional Convention Headquarters, 2nd Floor, Perez Bros. Building, Agana, Guam.

The subject under discussion will be proposed changes to the Guam Organic Act and in particular, the Proposed Bill of Rights, (copy attached). Your further views are solicited and it is hoped that you may wish to present some of your suggestions and opinions at this meeting.

Members of the Guam Chamber of Commerce have also been invited to attend and offer their suggestions.

I hope to see you there.

Sincerely,

Joseph F. Ada
Chairman, Bill of Rights Committee
